

Quarterly Meeting May 14 Jerry Granata Workshop with Jerry Friday May 13,

A workshop with national prize winning quilter Jerry Granata - "Quilting With Unusual Fabrics". Have you seen all those fantastically silky, shiny, sparkly, luxurious fabrics and wondered how to use them? Have you seen Jerry's stylish over the top quilts at Road to California or Houston Quilt Festival? This class will show you how to use all those amazing materials in his quilts - lamé, brocades, upholstery, silks, satins, vinyl, plastic sheeting, leather - even aluminum foil in your own quilts! You will learn all the secrets to piecing, applique, and quilting these tricky fabrics to create a truly fantastic work of art! Jerry will bring examples of all of these for you to use and from them you will make the class project - a very large pocketed pin cushion while learning his amazing techniques. He's a great story teller.

"Space is still available the workshop above.
Fee: $75.00 including materials ($90 for Non-members). Location: St. Andrews Lutheran Church, 11555 National Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90064.

Latifah Saafir "Glam Clam" June 4th.

Our original teacher for June 4, Kay Khan - "Quilted Jewelry" had to cancel her visit , but happily Latifah Saafir has graciously agreed to move up her workshop <http://www.latifahsaafirstudios.com> originally scheduled for September. Latifah, a co-founder of both the Los Angeles Modern Quilt Guild and the worldwide Modern Quilt Guild, is known for her bold and innovative modern quilts. Combining her training as an engineer with her lifelong passion for sewing, Latifah creates designs that are graphic and contemporary, featuring challenging techniques with meticulous attention to detail. Learn more about Modern Quilts as you construct "Glam Clam", a fun versatile pattern that takes a traditional hand pieced block and blows it up to 12" so that you can machine piece it. Yes, Machine Pieced Clamshells! There is also an 8" Glam Clam Quilt pattern available. The supply list is available on our website at http://www.westsidequilterslosangeles.org/Images/Latifah Saafir/Glam Clam Pre Class Doc - Westside Quilters copy.pdf It's quite a document with lots of ideas for layouts and color ways and a printable work sheet so you can try out your own color idea. She asks you to download the free pattern from Craftsy.com, but if you have a problem, I can email you the pattern PDF when you sign up for the class.

Workshop Fee: $70 , $85.00 for Non-members.

Workshop Location: Relational Center, 2717

Robertson Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90034

In the meantime, we are gearing up for our visit by art quilter, Lura Schwartz Smith at our August 20 meeting and workshop. In "Designing Art Quilts" you will use your own photos and using textile inks, markers, pencils, pastels, etc. discover fun, easy design and drawing exercises to achieve realistic imagery in your quilts. No prior art experience is necessary. This will be an opportunity to immerse yourself in a very relaxing creative environment with this excellent teacher and create a very personal expression. Look for more information on the Calendar page of www.westsidequilterslosangeles.org in a week or so. We are opening registration for this special 2-day event at the May 14 meeting. Be sure to visit the Programs Table to sign up!

Bring your workshop pieces to Show and Tell!

We've had three great workshops at WQ since the beginning of the year - Log Cabin Condo with Luke Haynes, "Fashionistas" with Kathryn Pellman and Cindy Myers' paper pieced "Cactus Flower Table Runner" just a couple of weeks ago. I bet some of you have also made considerable headway on your projects from the UFO workshop in January. (I've finished mine!) We'd love to see your work since the workshops, so bring your projects - completely finished or not - to the May 14th meeting and proudly show them. We know how it inspires others to take advantage of the great opportunities that membership in WQ offers.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Members:

Well, it's time for that proverbial "out with the old and in with the new." It's time for me to say good-bye and to thank the Board and WQ members for a wonderful two years. They have gone by so quickly. I'm now going to sit back, catch up on some quilting (what else?).

Last month I mentioned that I was having my reunion with my retired buddies in Colorado Springs. I had a great time and am happy to report my fear of flying is getting better. I only had to hold a hand at takeoff and took deep breaths when we landed. I can't remember having a better time with my friends though. We took time to catch up on everyone's lives, drank wine, sewed, drank wine, cooked, drank wine, saw a movie, drank wine and I got to catch up with an old childhood/college friend whom I hadn't seen in over 23 years (I grew up in Denver).

We did have a funny situation at LAX though. If you remember, I said we were all going to sew the jelly roll race quilt? One of us (not me!) was being generous with her jelly rolls and decided to bring seven of them in her luggage to share. My boarding pass was "TSA PRE Check" meaning I got to go through the "privilege traveler" line, got checked in fairly quickly (didn't have to take off my shoes or jacket) while my two friends had to go through the usual routine of shoes off, walk through the scanner, etc. I ended up waiting a bit for them because one of them had gotten pulled aside and was having her luggage searched. I laughingly said "I bet she got pulled over for her jelly rolls." When this friend finally joined us, she said the jelly rolls in her luggage triggered an alarm! I started to laugh. I was right! She tried to explain to the TSA guy about jelly rolls, etc. but he didn't seem to be too interested! So the moral of the story is -- be careful how you pack your jelly rolls or you will have your luggage searched..

Au revoir until I see you at a workshop or a meeting!

Perla Rothenberg, President

Leadership

Debbie Nussbaum, Vice President

It's that time of year when we welcome our new Westside Quilters board members and thank our outgoing board members. A big thanks to all board members who have agreed to continue in their position for the second year of their term (* indicates continuing). Special thanks to Sue Woods, Carol Kapuscinski, and Hilary Smith for staying on for another year in their very successful jobs as Philanthropy chairs...well done! .

It was important to the nominating committee, Sally Wright, Roberta Wally and me, Debbie Nussbaum to find new board members who will put their personalities, abilities, and innovations into Westside Quilters, and we think we have succeeded.

Westside Quilters is a Federal 501(c)(3) tax-exempt public charity. The effective date of exemption is June 17, 2010, as specified in the determination letter dated May 26, 2011.

MEMBERSHIP

June marks the start of the new fiscal year for the guild. That means two things, elections and membership renewals. Come to the meeting for both (bring your checkbook or credit/debit card) and workshop enrollment too. Our dues remain at $50 (a great anti-inflation bargain). If you can't make the meeting, you can fill out the renewal form that is included in the newsletter, enclose a check, and mail it to the PO box. Members receive the members' rate for all workshops, the email newsletter, the members' roster, and access the members only section of the website. Donations for which a tax deduction letter is sent are accepted as well at renewal time. This keeps our need for fundraising at a minimum. The renewal form is also available on the website.

WESTSIDE QUILTERS EXECUTIVE BOARD MEETING

APRIL 2, 2016

A meeting of the Executive Board of Westside Quilters was held on April 2nd, 2016 at the home of Sally Wright. President Perla Rothenberg welcomed everyone and called the meeting to order at 10:05 a.m. Other Officers attending were Sally Wright, Luann Jaffe, Debbie Nussbaum, Roberta Walley, Karynn Dittmar, Kathryn Pellman, Sue Woods, Hilary Smith, Carol Kapuscinski and Lisa Drew.

The motion to approve the minutes of the February 27th, 2016 Executive Board Meeting was made by Sally Wright, seconded by Sue Woods, and approved by all.

President's Report: Perla asked for suggestions for an organization to receive this year's WQ charitable contribution. Imagine L.A. was recommended and will be looked into. This will be voted on at the May quarterly meeting.

Vice President's Report: Debbie Nussbaum talked about the new slate of officers for the Executive Board. Kim Ryan has accepted the position of President, and Sally Madigan the Secretary position. Debbie is still working on filling the Treasurer position. Tina Nord has volunteered to continue as Treasurer if needed. All other officers will continue on the Board in their current positions. The slate of officers to be presented for approval at the upcoming quarterly meeting will be in the May newsletter.

Membership Report: Karynn Dittmar will add "previous occupation" to the information section of the membership form. Kathryn Pellman will speak about member participation in the guild at the May meeting.

Website / Social Media: Sally Wright will add an updated membership form to the website.

Treasurer's Report: Perla, speaking for Tina Nord, reported that the cash balance is currently $5154. We are still waiting for Culver City to refund a $300 deposit from 2015. The Kathryn Pellman March workshop had a loss of $318. The Cindy Myers April workshop has 9 registrants so far. The Guild received a notice from the IRS stating that they hadn't received the 2014 tax return and Tina sent a copy. Tina suggested the annual charitable contribution be $300 this year instead of $500 since WQ income is projected to be under budget.

The annual budget for the fiscal year beginning June 1st will be prepared and presented to the Board of Directors – Luisa del Guice, Lois Rose and Fred Zerez. On approval it will be printed in the May newsletter and be voted on at the May quarterly meeting.

Newsletter: Luann Jaffe reported that the April newsletter is ready to be sent out.

Philanthropy: Hilary Smith, Sue Woods & Carol Kapuscinski talked about the collection and delivery of the remaining philanthropy quilts. Sally Wright and Roberta Walley will deliver the Wounded Warrior quilts.

Sue Correll will be the scholarship recipient for the Cindy Myers workshop. Philanthropy will contact Santa Monica College to see if there is a fashion student who would like to attend the Kay Khan quilted jewelry workshop in July. The option of offering two scholarships to the same workshop was discussed to enable students to attend together. There will not be a scholarship offered for the August two day workshop.

Programs: Kathryn Pellman talked about opening the Kay Khan July class to members of Quilts on the Wall and the African American Quilt Guild to expand exposure. Sally reported that the Cindy Myers workshop currently has 14 registrants signed up. Debbie Nussbaum, Luann Jaffe and Kathryn Pellman volunteered to help set up the workshop. Sally will host Cindy at her home.

Sally, Kathryn and Roberta had met and discussed options for filling the 2017 and 2018 workshop calendar. Sally, Roberta and Debbie will attend the SCCQG "Meet the Teachers" event.

Roberta reported that there had been a problem confirming a location for the June workshop, she will look at St. Bedes Church and Culver City if necessary.

Other Guild Business: Tina Nord had drafted a letter to the donor of the HandiQuilter 16. The letter was reviewed and edits suggested. The guild is offering to either return the HQ16 to the donor or to sell it to a member of the guild and provide the donor with a tax donation receipt for the amount of the sale.

Upcoming Executive Board meetings will be held at the home of Sally Wright on Saturday June 11th at 10am.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:15 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Lisa Drew, Secretary

Next Executive Board Meeting

The next meeting of the Executive Board will be held June 11, 2016
All members of Westside Quilters are welcome to attend with prior notice to
