PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Wishing all WQ members a blessed Christmas and holiday season, and a safe, healthy and happy 2022!

May the new year bring you new inspirations and plenty of time to be creative and have lots of time with family and friends. May we all share the talents we have to those who are not as fortunate in these trying times. I am so blessed to have a community of quilting friends to share this gift of quilting and creating.

~Marianne Simpson,
Westside Quilters President

Enjoy this cute Christmas poem for quilters.....

'Twas the night before Christmas, and the quilts were not made.

The threads were all tangled, the cookies delayed.

The stockings weren't hung, the pantry was bare. The poor weary Quilter, was tearing her hair.

Stacks of fat quarters, tipped over in streams.

Visions of Log Cabins, had turned into dreams.

When what to her wondering eyes should appear, but a bus full of quilters with all of their gear.

They went straight to work with just a few mutters, sorting and stitching and brandishing cutters.

The patterns emerged from all of the clutter, like magic the fabrics arranged in a flutter

Log Cabins, Lone Stars, Flying Geese & Bear Tracks...Each quilt was a beauty-even the backs.

Her house how it twinkled, her quilts how they glowed.

The cookies were baking, the stockings were sewed.

Their work was all done, so they folded their frames, and packed up their needles, without giving their names.

They boarded the bus, and checked the next address.

More quilts to be made, another quilter in distress.

She heard one voice echo, as they drove out of sight,

Happy quilting to all and to all a good night!

Philanthropy.....

Hi Quilters!

Thanks to all who attended our "Giving for Thanksgiving" Philanthropy Sew-In on November 6. Many thanks to Pat Karasick for hosting the zoom event and making it so much fun with door prizes! Some of us used the Heart quilt pattern (shown below). See what Nancy Kawahara and Perla Rothenberg made with their heart blocks! We look forward to seeing your quilts in the near future.

Virginia Marshall recently made a delivery of WQ quilts and pillowcases to Upward Bound House, which runs programs for homeless families in Santa Monica and Culver City. They were very appreciative of our donation during this chilly weather. Next, Lisa Drew will be delivering another donation in early December to Para Los Niños, a program serving needy families in downtown LA, Hollywood and East LA. Please let us know if you have blocks, quilt tops, or completed quilts to donate. We will be happy to arrange a drop off or pick up. We appreciate all of your efforts!

WQ donation to Upward Bound made in November

Donation ready for Para Los Niños for delivery in early December. Please get your completed philanthropy quilts to us so they can be delivered before the holidays!

Thanks again for your generosity! We wish you and your family a wonderful holiday season!

Leadership.....

Holiday Wishes

Last year we were at my daughter's for Thanksgiving. It was just her family, us, and one friend; and we sat at three separate tables outside, huddled in our coats on a chilly evening. This year, 18 fully vaccinated people were able to gather inside around one big table to celebrate together. Quite an improvement, and we were truly thankful.

Hanukkah has also started, and Christmas is right around the corner. Last year we dropped off Hanukkah presents for our grandchildren, unable to be together to light candles and share a holiday meal. This year, on the last day of Hanukkah, my daughter and I are flying to Israel together. We have to jump through a few hoops to do this (several Covid tests, special forms to fill out, etc.), but something that was out of the question last year is now possible and we are thrilled and excited.

Next week is the Westside Quilters annual holiday tea. Unfortunately, we are not yet able to be together for this, but I hope to see everyone there on Zoom. And I hope that by next year we can again celebrate this event in person.

Wishing everyone a joyous and safe holiday season. I hope you are able to be with family and friends for the holidays. I hope we have many opportunities in the coming year to share our love of quilting – maybe even in person! I'm so ready to be together again.

Happy quilting, and Happy 2022!

Featured WQ Member:

Susanne Cole     Member since 2018

When did you start quilting?

I made my first quilt in 1975 after coming to United States. It was queen size made from 4" squares. I used fluffy polyester batting and tied at the corners of each square. My husband helped me pick the fabric and we came up with a design. I then made a few baby quilts. I still knew nothing about quilting. I would mark the fabric with a template and cut with scissors.

Why?

Growing up in Denmark I was exposed to and learned many crafts and was knitting and crocheting at age 5. My grandmothers did beautiful embroidery and my mother was a seamstress. I was always interested in learning and glad that they all were willing to teach me.

So, I was eager to take on a new craft and make a quilt. It wasn't until the 1990s, when my husband bought me a sewing machine, I got hooked on quilting. I started taking classes and watched Alex Anderson and Quilt in a Day.

What types do you make?

I started with traditional quilts and was always interested in learning new techniques. I love to design my own pattern. Writing instructions is hard. You can't just assume people will know what to do. You have to be very specific for it to be a good pattern.

My all-time favorite class was with Sharon Schamber learning free-motion quilting on a Juki. I eventually started renting a longarm. That is by far my favorite part of quilting now. I am grateful for my job at Sewing Arts Center where I do longarm for customers.

How often do you quilt?

I pretty much quilt every day. Since I am working at Sewing Arts Center some days we are all there working on different quilting projects.

What time of day?

I wake up early and go to my sewing room and sew a little before going to work.

Why did you join Westside Quilters?

I joined the Westside Quilters to meet and talk to other quilters. Share ideas.

Who are your favorite teachers and lecturers?

My favorite teacher is Sharon Schamber. I love her Piecelique Technique. It is a unique way of doing curved piecing and applique.

What are your favorite workshops or conventions in the past?

I have taken a couple classes at QuiltCon with Tia Curtis and Jodi Robinson. Very cool classes.

Where does your inspiration come from?

Sometimes I see a building with an interesting design. One of my latest quilts was inspired by a walk to Tongva Park with my grandkids. There are a couple of lookout areas with an upside-down basket like cover

Tell us your favorite quilt story about receiving or giving a quilt

I love to surprise people with a quilt. I belong to the Danish Sisterhood and have started giving a few quilts to the younger members when they have a birthday. When people don't expect anything, they are so grateful.

Calls for Entry December 2021

So happy to say the quilt shows and exhibits are slowly coming back to life! We're looking forward to a live Road to California in January. Congratulations to both Sherry Kleinman and Sally Wright whose quilts have been juried into the show! if there is anyone else, please let us know. However, before sending off your entry to any show, double check to make sure that the event is actually taking place. There are a few deadlines coming up soon and some listed below to get ready for next Spring. Hopefully as 2022 progresses there will be more opportunities. Watch this space!

For some great information from a veteran on how to get your work shown see this blog entry from Sue Bleiweiss <https://suebleiweiss.blog/2018/06/14/getting-your-work-out-there/>

I also recommend this blog post from Lyric Kinard on how to choose venues to display your work - <https://lyrickinard.com/2019/05/showing-your-work-choosing-venues/> In fact, there is a whole series of blog posts on getting your work out there that is well worth your time.

Here are some suggestions for quilt entry photography from International Quilt Festival.
PHOTOGRAPHING YOUR QUILT FOR SUBMISSION

Continuing our notifications for ways to display your quilts and textile pieces to a wider audience... Entering shows is not difficult, but to begin here are a few guidelines:

- Always make sure you read everything in the call including the calendar, requirements, rules, etc. Especially the rules! Will save headaches and disappointment later on.
- Keep a record on your entries so you won't be caught with a quilt needing to go two places at once. Having to remove a quilt from a show or exhibit because you misread the exhibition dates is a no-no. Ask me how I know...
- Having a great photo of your quilt - straight on, in focus, not on a bed or held up showing hands and feet, super important. There is lots of great info on quilt photography on line. Google!
- Don't be intimidated or depressed by a rejection! There are lots of different reasons why a quilt doesn't fit into a specific show. It is usually not because your quilt is bad!

The calls below are just a sample of the many opportunities out there. For more search "Fiber Art Calls for Entry" or "Quilt Calls for Entry"

Editor's Note:

Having been operating in "pandemic Zoom mode" for the last 20 months, we have missed the comradery of taking classes together and gathering for general meetings. I really miss Show & Tell at WQ General Meetings, the creativity and skill always leave me inspired! I miss packing our machines and sewing gear and gathering at one of our various venues for a day of quilting, sharing ideas, and learning new skills or honing existing skills. I will never take for granted sitting in the kitchen at St Andrew for lunch! What I miss most is getting to know new and old WQ members better than when I walked in to St Andrew (or other venue) for a class or meeting that morning. Happy Holidays to all my fellow Westside Quilters. Hope to see you on Zoom on Saturday, December 4th.

Stay Safe and Healthy.....
Happy Stitching,

Westside Quilters Executive Board meeting, November 13, 2021

President: Marianne opened the meeting at 10:00 and asked for approval of October 17th's meeting minutes. Sally moved, Debbie seconded and the Board voted to approve.

Marianne brought up the subject of attendance at workshops and wondered how we can urge more members to attend. She has discussed the issue with other guild presidents and it seems to be happening to most guilds at this time.

Vice President: Barbara wants Board members to let her know if they wish to continue on WQ's Board - either in the same position or another one. And she is looking for suggestions of anyone in the Guild who would be willing to serve.

Treasurer: Karynn reported $8592.76 in the bank account.

Membership: Luann said membership hasn't changed in the last month.

Programs: WQ's annual Holiday Tea will be on December 4 over Zoom. The Programming Committee is working on some fun activities.

Workshops, lectures and Quarterly meeting talks are fully booked for 2021, and Pat said the committee is going ahead and scheduling some of 2022. Information will be on the website soon. Pat is also in contact with St. Andrew's Church about their setup for in person or hybrid meetings in the future.

Philanthropy: Nancy said the Philanthropy Day in early November went well. She still has some batting and Minky fabric for anyone who needs it for philanthropy quilts. There will be an upcoming fabric sale in the new year. Details need to be worked out.

Newsletter: Debbie needs articles by November 27 for December's issue.

Website: Sally will be posting future programming on the website soon. And she urges everyone to send in photos of your quilts - new, old, finished, just a top - for the weekly email and to post on Facebook and Instagram. If you post on either of those websites to your own account, be sure to tag Westside Quilters.

New Business: The next Board meeting will be on January 16 at 12:00.

Meeting adjourned at 11:00.

Respectively submitted,

Terrie Dorio, Secretary

Next Executive Board Meeting
 The next meeting of the Executive Board will be held, January 16, 2022
 All members of Westside Quilters are welcome to attend with prior notice to
