There are still a few places available in our Friday workshop with Maria Shell. These may go fast as we advertise to some of our neighboring guilds, so reserve your spot now!

We also welcome Victoria Jung as our Showcase Speaker. Victoria who some of you may know from the late Sew Modern will share with us what's going on with her new adventure at owner/proprietor of Sew Together Stitching Lounge in Inglewood. <http://www.sewtogetherlounge.com>

At the October 21 meeting we'll be opening Susan Brubaker Knapp's February 2-3, 2018 workshop for registration. We know it's a ways off, but we want to make sure to get the word out at our last quarterly meeting before the Holidays! We'll have a class sample of her great "Thread Sketching" technique to show and will have all the info at the meeting.

11555 National Blvd.
Los Angeles, CA 90064

Workshop Fee $80.00 ($75.00 for early bird registration by September 20th) $90.00 for Non-Members.

Using solid colored quilters cottons, students will learn how to stitch an assortment of pieced prints including stripes, chevrons, polka dots, herringbones, and plaids. While learning these new techniques students will also be given information about selecting a color palette, improvisational piecing techniques, and ideas for taking these techniques and creating original quilts. Visit www.mariashell.com for more information about Maria’s work or read her blog for more information about her process and methods <https://talesofastitcher.com/>

The Supply List is posted on the WQ website Calendar Page at

About Maria: “My artwork is firmly grounded in the craft of quilt making. It has taken me many years to acquire the cutting, piecing, and quilting skills I now use daily. Vintage and contemporary commercial solid and print cotton fabrics, as well as hand dyed cotton fabrics I have created are the materials I use in my work. These textiles are cut primarily without rulers and stitched into a two dimensional surface. I have always been interested in pattern and how complex pattern can also create complex figure ground composition. In 2011, I began to wonder what would happen if I selected a particular pattern—in this case the grid—and continued to play with it over the course of a series. What I discovered is that limiting the pattern but manipulating the line, color, and shape, can produce dynamic results that not only stand alone as compelling individual compositions, but also are intriguing to look at as a group. Limiting the structure of my work to a grid has allowed me to more fully explore my love of color. How to make color vibrate on the wall? That is the question for me.”

Maria’s first book “Improv Patchwork” will be published mid-October - in time for her visit. Maria will also be our guest at our Quarterly Meeting on Saturday, October 21 when she will present her presentation “Patchwork to Artwork—An Alaskan Quilt Maker’s Journey”.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Happy Fall Y'all

I saw this expression on some fall pillows at TJ Maxx and Amazon and even though they are reasonably priced I have an unreasonable amount of fabric that I feel I must use to make some new fall pillows instead of purchasing new. I love to decorate for fall, it's my favorite color way.

In October we have a workshop with Maria Shell. Her class looks like it would appeal to traditional, modern and art quilters. I hope members take advantage of the opportunity to learn and grow their quilting skills and spend the day creating. She will also be our speaker at our General Meeting on October 21st.

In November we have our Philanthropy workshop on the 11th. It's a great way to participate in our guild philanthropy endeavors and there is a job for everybody. We also have a pot luck lunch that day so again a day to create and socialize.

SAVE THE DATE, DECEMBER 3RD for our HOLIDAY TEA!!!!!! Details to follow in an email blast. Just a day for socializing.

See you all on the 21st!

Happy Quilting,

Kim Ryan, President

PHILANTHROPY

Mark your calendars for the Saturday, November 11th

Philanthropy workshop!!

Please mark your calendar, sign up at the October 21st Westside Quilter's general meeting, and join us at St. John's on Saturday November 11th for a day of fun, food and philanthropy!

We will have different stations at the workshop – sewing blocks together, piecing backs, removing papers, assembling the quilts, machine quilting, making and attaching binding and hand sewing labels. Please come for the day or stop by for hour or two. Bring a machine or just yourself. We will be having a potluck lunch so please bring a food item to share. We will provide coffee, water, and a dessert or two.

Thank you to the members who took home kits or strip block papers. Please bring any completed blocks or quilt kits to the October 21st WQ general meeting. We have put together more papers and kits and these will be available at the meeting.

We are already off to a good start having collected approximately a dozen quilts, numerous knitted hats and scarves and a couple of receiving blankets. We are looking forward to completing more projects at the November 11th workshop and being able to make a delivery to both A Child's Dream & Upward Bound before Christmas of this year.

If any members have larger pieces of fabric suitable for quilt backs that they would be able to donate we would really appreciate it.

Thank you!

Lisa Drew, Perla Rothenberg, Virginia Marshall

Leadership.....

A couple things that passed my way on the Internet caught my attention. The first was this:

Happiness is the new rich.
Inner peace
is the new success.
Health
is the new wealth
Kindness
is the new cool.

the second was:

*The meaning of life
is to find your gift.*

*The purpose of life
Is to give it away.*

William Shakespeare

These days we have been bombarded with so much worrisome news, conflict, and natural disasters that sometimes it's tempting to bolt the door, pull the shades, and cover one's head with a quilt. But, like the "everyone welcome" girls (big and small, short or tall) volleyball team I read about recently whose team song is This Little Light of Mine, we have the wherewithal to brighten the corners we encounter. Reportedly the girls enthusiastically belt out their song on the bus to every game where everyone gets a chance to play. So let us not hide under a bushel, but be enthusiastic about taking the opportunity to make things brighter because we took the time to listen to laugh to cry or to share with someone who really needed somebody to care. We have been blessed with the ability to (most of the time) sew a straight seam, and that seam and all its little buddies join together to make something wonderful. It is a gift—and we're happy, happy, happy to give it away.

Postscript:

Lovely to spend a quiet DAY AT THE BEACH with Tina Curran as our teacher.

Imagine a day with your only concerns being were how to create towels and umbrellas out of fabric Tina calmly led use through the ins and outs of her pattern.

I am excited to get started on some family holiday gifts, join us in October for a workshop with Maria Shell and start a holiday gift of your own.

Please join in and share a workshop day with us.

In Memorial

Pepper Libow

We mourn the passing of our friend, fellow quilter, and WQ guild member Pepper Libow

Pepper was a Registered Nurse who worked as a mental health nurse. She was married and has two children, a daughter and son who both live up north.

When Pepper discovered quilting she jumped in with both feet! She bought a long arm machine and away she went! Her quilting studio was wonderful. She had her quilting machine in a room in the garage. She was always working on several quilts at a time, she was so happy quilting. Pepper was a prolific quilter, and shared her quilts with so many people over the years.

Pepper was a vibrant, energetic and helpful member of our guild, she will be missed.

We look forward to some exciting workshops and programs.

Anyone else who hasn't already noted that they are looking to put together a mini group please notify me as we can make a plan to get together to make some connections. Mini groups can bring on new ideas, companionship, friendships and hopefully more incentives to keep quilting.

Calls for entry

Road to California Deadline is Monday October 2! Get online now!

Continuing our notifications for ways to display your quilts and textile pieces to a wider audience... Entering shows is not difficult, but to begin here are a few guidelines:

- Always make sure you read everything in the call including the calendar, requirements, rules, etc. Especially the rules! Will save headaches and disappointment later on.
- Keep a record on your entries so you won't be caught with a quilt needing to go two places at once. Having to remove a quilt from a show or exhibit because you misread the exhibition dates is a no-no. Ask me how I know...
- Having a great photo of your quilt - straight on, in focus, not on a bed or held up showing hands and feet, super important. There is lots of great info on quilt photography on line. Google!
- Don't be intimidated or depressed by a rejection! There are lots of different reasons why a quilt doesn't fit into a specific show. It is usually not because your quilt is bad!
- Something to think about - The accepted finalists for IQA's Judged Show Quilts: A World of Beauty came out recently the International Quilt Festival Houston in October. Here is the link to the list of artists whose work will be heading off to Houston for the biggest and best US quilt show. http://www.quilts.org/downloads/2017_IQA_Finalists.pdf. Notice that 59% of the work submitted was accepted this year. That's better than half! If you get up the gumption to enter, you might just be surprised.

Westside Quilters Quarterly Meeting

August 5, 2017

President Kim Ryan opened Westside Quilters (WQ) August general meeting by welcoming guests and new members.

The minutes of the May 13, 2017 quarterly meeting had been circulated to members via e-mail. Sandy Ray moved to accept the minutes, Jenny Lou Kraft seconded the motion and it passed by voice vote.

Karynn Ditmar, treasurer, reported that the July 31st balance was over $9,000.

Luann announced that WQ now has 79 members. She also announced that anyone who wants to join a mini-group should sign the interest sheet and Luann will follow-up with those members.

Perla Rothenberg and Lisa Drew announced that 19 quilts have been donated for Upward Bound. A kit of blocks to be sewn for A Child's Dream, and sewn into quilts at the November 11th Giving for Thanksgiving workshop, was available for members to take home and complete before then.

Sally Wright and Roberta Walley said that there was still plenty of time to sign up for Tina Curran's workshop At The Beach, set for September 16th. They also encouraged sign ups for Maria Shell's workshop on October 20th, Making Prints Out Of Solids. Maria will be the focus speaker at WQ's October 21st general meeting. Sally and Roberta also reviewed the remaining 2017 calendar: November 11th Giving for Thanksgiving workshop and Holiday Tea in December.

South Bay Quilters Guild displayed and sold tickets on their 2018 opportunity quilt "Rose Emporium."

WQ's Showcase speaker, WQ member Vicki Bohnhoff, showed her beautiful quilts in which she uses an incredible number of techniques and fabrics.

Sally Wright demonstrated Lenore Crawford's technique which uses fabric scraps to dress up your sneakers.

WQ members' Show and Tell quilts included: Nick & Jane's Smokin' Hot Date, Hot Flash Birthday Concerns and Fone Calls Real & Imagined by Kathryn Pellman; Lone Star by Karen Rakita; Kathleen LeVessaur Vintage Baskets by Pat Karasick; Medley, and Fantasy by Sandra Lauterbach; Changing the View Outside My Window by Barbara Maron-Pollack; unfinished quilt and quilt tops in various colors by Luann Jaffe; Windmill, and Mardi Gras by Maureen Gardener; Some of My Best Friends are Antiques, a Wasilowski influenced piece, Emerald City, and Chopkey I, a Rami Kim style piece by Sally Wright; Japanese Lantern, and Yellow Car by Roberta Walley, Zipper by Daisy Marks, Sun Bonnet Sue, quilt, pillow and doll, and a children's book by Bobbie Blake, Veggie Circles by Debbie Nussbaum, Baby Map and Row Quilt for Little Girls by Sandra Abramowitz for Philanthropy; Flowers from Wasilowski workshop, The Cure for Pink quilt by Cathy Seidman; Lighthouses, and Wedding Quilt by Marianne Simpson; Laura's Workshop Flowers by Sue Correll.

Before the meeting and during breaks, WQ conducted its annual fabric sale consisting of fabric donated by members, much of it from Madeline Ehrlich's holdings. Most people went home with a yard or two, and there was fabric left for Philanthropy's use, too.

Our main speaker, Laura Wasilowski provided a wonderfully fun trip through her life in her "I Quilt, Therefore, I Am" talk. With as much singing as quilting, she joyfully displayed many of her fused quilts and kept everyone mesmerized and humming along. Press On!

The meeting closed at 12:15 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Sally Madigan
Recording Secretary

Westside Quilters Board Meeting Minutes July 22, 2017

On July 22, 2017, the Westside Quilters (WQ) Executive Board met at Sally Wright's home. President Kim Ryan called the meeting to order.

Comment [1]:
Sarah Madigan Apr 29, '17, 2:40 PM

A motion to approve the minutes of the June 17, 2017 Board Meeting, previously submitted to the Board by e-mail, was made by Sally Wright, seconded by Debbie Nussbaum, and approved by voice vote of the Board.

As the meeting opened, Roberta recommended attending an exhibit entitled "Hands at Work" in Santa Monica at Bergamot Station, Shoshana Wayne Gallery. The artist, Sabrina Gschwandtner, has created eleven quilts from film strips. The exhibit is open through August 26th.

On a sad note, Kim told the Board of Madeline Ehrlich's passing. Madeline was a founding member of Westside Quilters. Madeline gave her fabric collection to Westside Quilters, and it will be incorporated into the fabric sale at WQ's August general meeting. In the future, WQ will make a charitable donation in Madeline's name to a group suggested by her family.

WQ's Board will advertise the August 4 meeting and fabric sale to other groups, and agreed to waive the $10.00 guest fee for this meeting. Signs will indicate a suggested donation per yard of the fabric.

Vice-President Sonja Daniel attended the Southern California Council of Quilt Guild's (SCCQG) meeting on parliamentary procedure. The SCCQG presenter recommended that every guild's By-Laws be reviewed in 5 year intervals, especially in light of the technological advances which now make voting by e-mail a possibility. Sonja also said that the recommended procedure following the presentation of a Motion is to call for Discussion, and then to Vote on the issue. As Vice-President, Sonja acts as WQ's Parliamentarian. She noted that SCCQG represents 96 guilds, and that any member guild is welcome to host their quarterly meetings.

Luan Jaffe is updating the Membership Roster and familiarizing herself with the computer program. She is adding new members to the e-mail list. At the August meeting, Luan will offer members the opportunity to sign up for mini-group(s), and she will talk about the value of membership in a mini-group.

Sally Wright is maintaining WQ's website and keeping WQ's calendar updated.

Karynn Dittmar has made WQ bank deposits and is meeting with a Bank of America official to update WQ's signature card for the upcoming year.

Debbie Nussbaum set July 27th as the deadline for August Newsletter articles. The Newsletter will include a tribute to Madeline. Debbie will update the birthday list according to the new membership listing.

Perla is putting Philanthropy quilt kits together. She will bring them to WQ's August meeting. Three quilt tops are also ready to be worked on. A special invitation will be e-mailed to members about the November 11th Philanthropy Sewing Day, which will be held at St. John's.

Sally and Roberta indicated Laura Wasilowski's workshop on August 4th is sold out. At the August 5th WQ general meeting, Vickie Bohnhoff will be our Showcase speaker, Sally Wright will demonstrate Lenore Crawford's method for jazzing up sneakers with fabrics, and Laura Wasilowski will provide WQ's main presentation. Sign-ups for Tina Curran and Maria Shell workshops will open at the August meeting. Travel plans for each teacher are under discussion, and work samples are coming.
