

SATURDAY,
MAY 13 QUARTERLY MEETING
ELECTIONS and
SPEAKER: RAMI
KIM

We're especially looking forward to our visit from Rami Kim! Her workshop is going to be a great technique building class and there is still room in the class, so send in your registration now! For the Saturday meeting, Rami, a 17-time 'Best of Show' winner, will present "Fascination", an over view of her quilts, dolls, bags and a fashion show of her amazing wearable art. You won't want to miss this. We will need volunteer models for these perfectly beautiful pieces, 6 to 8 models ranging in sizes 8-14. If you've ever wanted to walk the runway (or maybe you already have and are experienced) please let us know. Please email Programs@westsidequilterslosangeles.org - we need your help! Rami will also need a clothes rack, so if anyone has one they can bring, let us know that, too!

NEW WORKSHOP
"BRAIN TWIST"
Saturday, June 10, 2017,
9:30 -3:30

We're especially happy to welcome our own WQ member Sylvia Davis again! Sylvia is a noted Southern California Quilt Teacher, Designer and Artist

Sylvia will present "Brain Twist". Don't you just love patterns that twist and turn and interweave? Well this one does all that and yet, it is easy to piece --once you learn its secrets. I bet you think this is assembled in "squares." Well, it isn't! Yes, Brain Twist is jellyroll friendly, IF your jelly roll has two identical strips of each fabric. Even though Brain Twist comes together quickly, it will make you engage both sides of your brain. Confident beginners will enjoy the exercise. This quilt has Sylvia's usual contemporary style and flair.

Rami Kim
The Fifth Dimension

We have a predate with Rami Kim for Friday, May 12th before the General Meeting. In her class: the Fifth Dimension we will learn five of her unusual fabric manipulation techniques. Think of it as a way to add that something special to art quilts, bags, wearables and even traditional quilts.

Friday, May 12, 2017 St. Andrews Lutheran Church 11555 National Blvd., Los Angeles, CA 90064
Workshop Fee $75.00 or $90.00 for Non-Members. Want to sign up? Email to programs@westsidequilterslosangeles.org or call Sally Wright at 310-471-6034

Sylvia Davis has been a quilter since 1993 and a "Crosscrafter" most of her life. As a child she learned to sew, knit and crochet and by 1993 had discovered quilting as her passion. Her quilts have been seen at PIQF, Road to California, the African-American History Museum, Riverside Museum and International Quilt Festival Houston. Her quilt "98% Off" was featured in the Los Angeles Times in 2017 as part of an article about the Modern Quilt Guild. She teaches quilting at The South Bay Adult School and provides lectures, trunk shows and workshops for quilt guilds all over California. Sylvia is a member of Westside Quilters, The African-American Quilt Guild of Los Angeles and the Modern Quilt Guild.

Sylvia says "My quilts would be considered traditional in style; however, my use of fabrics and design is richly colorful and exotic."

She always brings something new, fresh and different for Westside Quilters!

"Brain Twist" can be made in a variety of colors and moods - here are a few more examples.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

In Grace Errea's workshop I learned another technique for making pictorial appliqué quilts. She uses an interesting substance called Liquid Thread. There are quite a few steps involved. Starting with tracing and making pattern pieces from freezer paper, painting with the Liquid Thread and finally using an iron to fuse all pieces down. The appliqué piece has a nice soft hand, due to the dust like quality of the substance as it dries and is heat set.

I enjoyed all the steps and they made sense once we tried it out on a practice tulip pattern. I have spent the last couple of days putting together my cornflower pattern which I chose with my workshop kit. Grace also talked a lot about using value in quilts and I realized that most of my fabric stash is in the medium tones, so on future stash building I will be on the look out for dark darks and light lights.

The end of April is the end of Poetry Month, which I love. I read a poem a day from the website Poets.org. And this one caught my eye. It is written by American Poet Nikki Giovanni.

Quilts

Like a fading piece of cloth
I am a failure

No longer do I cover tables filled with food and laughter
My seams are frayed and my hems falling my strength no longer able
To hold the hot and cold

I wish for those first days
When just woven I could keep water
From seeping through
Repelled stains with tightness of my weave
Dazzled the sunlight with my Reflection

I grow old though pleased with my memories
The tasks I can no longer complete
Are balanced by the love of the tasks gone past

I offer no apology only this plea;

When I am frayed and strained and drizzle at the end
Please someone cut a square and put me in a quilt
That I might keep some child warm
And some old person with no one else to talk to
Will hear my whispers

And cuddle near

- by Nikki Giovanni

Happy Quilting

Grace Errea WORKSHOP

> Thanks Westside Quilters for supporting our very successful workshop programs. Our members enjoyed spending the day at Westside Pavilion with Grace Errea's new method for appliqué with no frayed edges. We also discussed the value of value. Grace says, COLOR GETS THE CREDIT BUT VALUE DOES THE WORK. So look for the variations in your photo and assign a number from one to eight. She sorts her fabric stash by value not color...INTERESTING.

Looking forward to you joining all of us at our May 12 workshop with Rami Kim at St. Andrew's Church and our quarterly meeting Saturday May 13 at St. John's.

See you

PHILANTHROPY

PHILANTHROPY

May 2017 Newsletter

We have been given some beautiful knitted lap-size blankets which would be perfect for an Assisted Living or Senior Center. But... we need suggestions for a place that could use some, or all, of these blankets. The Committee will make the contacts and arrange for delivery, but we need your help with suggestions. You can contact us at Philanthropy@WestsideQuiltersLosAngeles.org or bring your suggestions at the next General meeting.

As of the last count, we have donated over 100 "Dollie" Quilts and will continue to collect Dollie quilts, "kid" quilts and quilts for our military personnel. Please bring your completed quilts to any General meeting.

Looking ahead: The Guild was given a donation of an HQ quilting machine and in the next few months the Board will be looking for "a home" for it. It is anticipated to be worth approximately $1000.00, it has been serviced and is in working order. More details about the machine will be available in the future... but you can begin thinking about it if you are interested.

Thanks again for all the great support and contributions to the Guild projects!

Leadership.....

Feeling inspired! I'm at Asilomar for the very first time! The class I'm taking, Landscape Impressions with a Twist, taught by Denise Oyama Miller and Nancy Ryan, is wonderful and I am loving it! I hope to share my completed quilt at our Westside Quilters quarterly meeting.

Speaking of which, we will have elections for several offices and as Vice President, it is my responsibility to find new leaders for Westside Quilters. Last month's newsletter asked for volunteers to contact me. This month, I'm begging! Without volunteer to run the guild there would be no guild. It takes very little time to attend board meetings and plan events, which is all really more social than work. So, who would like to be the next VP? Philanthropy is enjoyably run by a group of 2 or 3. There's a name floating around of a member to take over as treasurer, is it an official yes? Join the guild planning fun and serve as an officer or chairperson. Please email me your desire to fill one of the open positions.

Happy stitching and greetings from beautiful Asilomar.

EDITORIAL

I must be getting old and thinking about mortality. Or was it April 15, Death and taxes. No one avoids them. Here's part of a newspaper clipping saved by my sister—timely advice for everyone. It is written by a financial advisor who calls for a legacy drawer:

1. Cover Letter: Just a simple letter to introduce loved ones to drawer's contents.
2. Will or Trust: Copies of your will or trust, including names of the executor and person with power of attorney.
3. Financial Accounts: List anything in your name, including account numbers, and amounts. This includes credit card, bank, and retirement accounts.
4. Funeral plans: All instructions should be noted so family can fulfill your wishes. If married, include both spouses' wishes.
5. Insurance policies: List all health, life, auto, homeowners' policies, etc. Include who is covered, policy numbers and contact information.
6. Vital documents: Include birth certificates, divorce papers, military and Social Security records, car and boat titles, mortgages and property deeds.
7. Legacy letters: Since the intent is to guide your family after you're gone, include personal notes or letters to loved ones.
8. Monthly budget: Add a copy of your budget, including bills to pay, so your family is prepared to handle household expenses.
9. Tax returns: In case of an IRS audit, your state and federal tax returns can be like an insurance policy.
10. Safe deposit box: Where is it located and who has access. As a backup, keep a copy in your box of the legacy drawer's contents.
11. Passwords: Write down all passwords, user names and PIN numbers so family can access computer, cellphone, and financial accounts.

And if that isn't bad enough, in the 19th century coffin quilts were made and poetry stitched in. (Quilters Newsletter, Sept 2008)

"When I am dead and in my grave,
And all my bones are rotten,
When this you see remember me,
That I'll not be forgotten.

As you are now, so once was I,
As I am now, you soon shall be,
Prepare for death and follow me."

Hopefully this is not my last breath. Just my last newsletter. Thanks for being patient dear members.
Aileen and Luann

2017 Westside Quilters Executive Board Meeting

On April 1, 2017, the Westside Quilters (WQ) Executive Board met at Sally Wright's home. The meeting was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Kim Ryan.

Minutes of the February 25, 2017 Board Meeting, previously submitted to the Board by e-mail, were approved by acclamation.

Kim opened the meeting by updating us on the Hospitality table situation at WQ's quarterly meetings. Marianne Simpson will be providing coffee at the next meeting, and Luann Jaffe will also be helping out. Although it seems early, there was discussion of setting a date for the Holiday Tea and finding someone to host it. Debbie Nussbaum is considering hosting the Tea. Others will be contacted to check their availability.

Treasurer Patti Post presented the Draft Budget for the coming fiscal year: 2017-2018. Anyone who has additional input should contact Patti before April 15th.

According to Luann, Newsletter articles are coming in. Luann also pointed out that the term of our present Newsletter Chairman, Aileen Cooke, ends with the May newsletter.

Philanthropy reported that Hilary had taken the quilting machine for repair ($159.50), and that it works well now. The problem was with the internal tension setting. The Board asked that a value be determined for the machine, perhaps by asking the person who repaired it, in order to set a fair price for it and to offer it to members in the May newsletter.

According to Sally Wright, WQ's workshop with Cathy Hoover was successful and fun. Sally's quilt from the workshop was a bright sample of the work done there. Grace Errea will hold a workshop for WQ on April 22nd. Fourteen people have signed up, but there is still room for six more students. Future 2017 workshops will be given by Rami Kim on May 12th, Sylvia Davis on June 10th, Laura Wasilowski on August 4th, Tina Curran on September 16th and Maria Shell on October 20th.

At WQ's May general meeting, Rami Kim, known for fabric manipulation used in quilts and wearables, will be our featured speaker. A demonstration is needed for the May general meeting.

Sally also pointed out that the Southern California Council of Quilt Guilds will soon have an app on their website to facilitate notifying members of other guilds about workshops and facilitating their attendance at the workshops of these outside guilds.

The Board's next meeting is scheduled for April 29th at 10:00 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Sally Madigan
