

President's Message

Summertime! For this native Angelo kid summer meant running in sprinklers, camping and pack trips in the Sierra Nevadas, backyard barbecues, clam digging, and 'educational' field trips to cultural sites and, of course, Marineland, Disneyland, and Pacific Ocean Park!

Nowadays summer means a little slower pace, a little more time to quilt, and for the last four years, a field trip for a few days at the International Quilt Festival in Long Beach. I urge you to make the trip to this fabulous show – quilt exhibits from around the U.S. and the world plus a huge number of vendors and a comprehensive list of classes.

IT'S TIME TO RENEW WQ!

The new Westside Quilters membership year runs from June 1, 2011 to May 31, 2012, so it is time to renew if you have not already done so. Please look over the great programming planned for the next 18 months. WQ's ability to provide great programming is predicated on our membership numbers, so if you want WQ to continue in its role as a new kind of quilt guild, we need your continued support. We will have to remove your name from the membership roster if we haven't received your renewal by July 31. Questions? Contact me at Membership@WestsideQuiltersLosAngeles.org. New membership cards will be mailed out soon. We're all looking forward to a fabulous year to come!

Luann Jaffe, Membership Chair

I've also learned to really appreciate the city of Long Beach. As a child, Long Beach was a punishment to visit an unpleasant great uncle. Now I look forward to Long Beach coastline weather, visiting the local sights like Shoreline Village and interesting restaurants. The old downtown area on Pine Street has been beautifully redeveloped. It's like a mini-vacation.

For now I'm working on my second Wounded Warrior quilt. I received a thank-you from a colonel at Camp Bastion Afghanistan. My first quilt arrived last week and was given to a wounded soldier that same day.

Whatever your summer plans, I hope you enjoy!

Sally Wright

President of Westside Quilters

PROGRAMS

As your new Program Co-Chairs, our heads are spinning with delight just thinking about our upcoming events! We – Amy Barer and Roberta Wally – are dancing as fast as we can to keep up with all the planned meetings, lectures and workshops. So.... Mark your day planner, datebook, or iPad calendar and join in.

Our next quarterly general meeting is Saturday, August 13, with Zena Thorpe as our very special lecturer who will discuss "A Look at History Through the Eye of a Needle." Many very talented quilters live in the Los Angeles area. Zena is not only recognized in our country but internationally as one of the top quilters of the 20th century.

Registration opens JULY 15 for the last two workshops of the year. An email blast will go to all members to indicate the fees and to direct you to supply lists on the website.

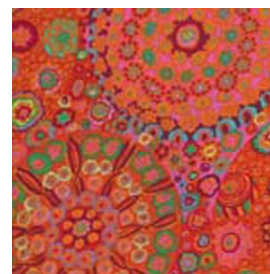

Saturday, September 10, is ZENA THORPE teaching "Embellished Letters". We each will choose a letter of the alphabet to hand applique. Vines and flowers will enhance and decorate your letter. All under the direction of the grand applique artist, Zena Thorpe.

Saturday, November 5, is the HOLIDAY CRAFTS WORKSHOP. WQ member KATHRYN BERNSTEIN will demonstrate how to make two holiday gifts. You will be given two kits – all the supplies to make a felt flower needlebook and a beaded scissor leash. As an added bonus, WQ member RUTH GILBERT will bring along the fabulous AccuCutter Grand Mark. You will have the opportunity to bring your own fabric pre-cut and starched. (More about how to cut will follow.) The important thing is that Kathryn and Ruth will die cut your prepared fabric and you will leave with a jelly-roll or charm pack from your fabric.

We hope you sign up for both these workshops!

Amy Barer & Roberta Walley, Program Co-Chairs

SECOND ANNUAL HOLIDAY TEA

KAFFE FASSETT – A REALLY SHORT BIOGRAPHY

By Sally Madigan, Newsletter Co-Editor

It's not that Kaffe Fassett has lived a short or uninteresting life. It's just the opposite. He has done so much that this article can only highlight some of the interesting moments.

Kaffe Fassett is not European or British, although he lives in London. He is an American, born in San Francisco in 1937 and raised in Big Sur from the time he was 12. His parents turned a cabin once owned by Orson Welles and Rita Hayworth into Nepenthe restaurant, which is still a family business. Along with an interest in painting encouraged by his mother, and no doubt influenced by the fact that his grandmother and great grandmother were painters, his artistic leanings were stoked by experience creating costumes for costume parties and performing in dancing programs at the restaurant.

When he was 19 (1956), Kaffe won a scholarship to the Museum of Fine Arts School in Boston. After about 3 months, he left school and was on his way to London to pursue a painting career. By 1964, Kaffe was settled in London. Along with selling paintings, he painted murals, illustrated books and created set designs for theaters.

As a painter, Kaffe often included textiles in his paintings. On a trip to a Scottish woolen mill, Kaffe became enthused by all the colors he saw. He bought 20 different shades of yarn, some knitting needles, and then convinced a woman on the train ride home to teach him to knit. From that point on, his life as a textile artist took off.

He became well known in England for his knitting patterns, and in 1985 his book Glorious Knitting was published. In 1987 Glorious Needlepoint was published, and in 1988 he was the first textile artist to have a one-man show at London's Victoria and Albert Museum.

On a trip to New York to promote one of his knitting books, he met the lady who would encourage him to enter the quilting world, Liza Prior Lucy. She worked for his knitting book publisher, but was a quilter who recognized quilting patterns in his knitting. Kaffe needed convincing, which came when he saw one of his early paintings in Liza's home. Its subject? A patchwork quilt and various teapots, vases, and other china items! This began a consuming interest in quilting for Kaffe. His first quilting book, Glorious Patchwork, was published in 1997. While Liza does the machine sewing of Kaffe's quilt designs, he does handwork at home.

In the ensuing 14 years since Glorious Patchwork, Kaffe has published many other quilting books. While maintaining his interest in yarns, Kaffe has given talks and workshops, and become well known for his colorful fabrics and quilts. This fall he will be touring the U.S., including a stop at Westside Quilters on September 26, and ending at Houston Quilt Market, where he and Liza will be part of the program.

There are a great many awards, including one for garden design, commendations, and experiences I have left out of this "biography", but Kaffe is working on an official one to be published in the fall of 2012.

AND HOW TO BUY TICKETS FOR SEPTEMBER 26 FUNDRAISER

Tickets are $25.00 each. The entire amount is a charitable tax deduction; Westside Quilters is a tax-exempt 501(c)(3) corporation. Beginning July 15, tickets can be purchased from the WQ website, www.WestsideQuiltersLosAngeles.org.

This is the ONLY way to purchase tickets – through the website. There is a short form to fill out so we know where to mail the actual tickets. Tickets will be mailed out beginning in mid-August. Tickets can be purchased by personal check or by PayPal (if you have a PayPal account). All instructions will appear on a special page on the website.

In early August we will begin distribution of bookmarks/flyers to quilt shops, yarn stores, quilt shows, and other pertinent venues. Marianne Simpson is in charge of this effort. If you'd like to help out, or if you have some ideas to help publicize this event, please email WestsideQuilters@yahoo.com. We will also be sending out an email blast to members soon asking for volunteers in the publicizing phase.

The September 26 lecture and book-signing will be held at the Westwood United Methodist Church in Westwood. We have room for 275 guests plus a little space to expand if necessary. Kaffe Fassett books will be for sale, and we are negotiating to have new Kaffe Fassett fabric for sale too.

At the WQ August 13 quarterly meeting (featuring Zena Thorpe), we will have bookmarks available for members to pick up to give to minigroup members, friends and neighbors.

PHILANTHROPY AND EDUCATION

Westside Quilters provide a wide variety of philanthropic activities even when on vacation.

Mifflin Presbyterian Church in Gahanna, Ohio, received two teacup quilt made by Barbara Weigold. They will be featured at their Senior Member Tea to be held in September. Barbara also found time to organize a group of quilters to provide quilting lessons for 18 third graders at New Hampshire Elementary School. The class graphed their quilt patterns in Math Class and then constructed them. The adult group saw that the finished tops were quilted and bound, and they now hang in the school cafeteria. Way to go WQ!!!

Many other WQ members are constructing quilts over the summer and doing lots of volunteer quilting activities; please let us know the wonderful things that you are doing so we can share with everyone. We should have a wonderful Show and Tell at our August General Meeting.

Your assistance is requested in identifying Scholarship candidates for our September Zena Thorpe Workshop. Please contact us by email or phone with your recommendations. Scholarship students can be young or new quilters, or teachers who might learn a technique or style to adapt for the teaching of others, or a deserving member of a local civic or education group (someone who helps make quilts for charity, for instance). Scholarship students are not chosen on the basis of financial need but to help promote quilt education and mentoring of new quilters.

Jackie Smerek was the scholarship recipient at our Freddy Moran Workshop. She is the education director at Tanner's Sew & Vac in Westchester. Jackie is new to quilting and found the workshop very inspiring. She also was impressed with fellow participants who she described as very warm, welcoming, and supportive. Jackie shared that she learned many new quilting techniques and blocks and was motivated to take on more challenging quilts. She is currently working on an English paper-piecing project.

Please continue to inform us of your philanthropy endeavors so we may maintain records of your personal and/or your mini-group's philanthropic and educational/mentoring endeavors. Your name, philanthropic agency name, and items donated or service provided are needed. Our email contact is Philanthropy@WestsideQuiltersLosAngeles.org.

EMOGENE JOHNSON

Emogene Johnson, the mother of Pam Johnson (WQ member and Philanthropy & Education Co-Chair) recently passed away. Pam wrote this about her mother:

“My mom was born and raised in Mississippi. As a child, my mom taught me how to sew – I used to sit on her lap, and I would sew paper. I learned to make my own clothes, and became quite handy at the sewing machine.

“She and I began quilting about 10 years ago. She participated in the Caring Hearts project with the African American Quilters of Los Angeles, and completed quilts for her three grandchildren. She battled Alzheimer’s for the past six years, and it was with love that I took care of her until the end. She went to sleep under my favorite quilt, that she made for herself, and I know the quilt is keeping her warm in heaven.”

Thank you, Pam, was allowing us to get to know your mother.

TRANSPORTATION TO LONG BEACH

One of your fellow WQ quilters may be able to give you a ride to the International Quilt Festival in Long Beach, or you may wish to volunteer to drive another member. To coordinate this, please send an email to WestsideQuilters@yahoo.com and either request or offer to carpool and we will post all information on the Members Only Page on the WQ website, www.WestsideQuiltersLosAngeles.org.

AMAZON BONUS PROGRAM ENDS

As a result of the California State budget recently signed into law by Governor Brown which requires all on-line retailers to charge California Sales Tax on purchases if they have marketing affiliates within the State, Amazon has terminated its Amazon Associates Program for California. Westside Quilters, its workshops and events have benefited from this program over the last year and we are sorry to see this program go! If you used the Amazon link on our website’s home page for your on-line purchases, we are very grateful.
