

3rd ANNUAL GIVING FOR THANKSGIVING WORKSHOP

Is your calendar marked for Westside Quilter's free philanthropy workshop on Saturday, November 8? It will be a great and productive day as we assemble child size quilts that will be distributed through the following local charities: Las Familias del Pueblo, Para Los Ninos and Saint Joseph Center.

We are ambitiously machine quilting all the quilts this year. Thank you to all of you who took packets of fabric squares to assemble tops. When assembled, please arrange to get the tops to either Tanya or Debbie both reachable via Philanthropy@WestsideQuiltersLosAngeles.org. In turn, we're doing our best to get the tops machine quilted prior to the workshop. It's also okay to bring tops to the workshop as we will do some actual domestic machine quilting there. However, quilting can be time consuming, so the more quilts we get past this point prior to the workshop, the better!

WHEN: Saturday, November 8
9:30 am — 3:30 pm

WHERE: Westwood Presbyterian
10822 Wilshire Blvd., 90024
(entrance of Ashton Ave., one block south of Wilshire Blvd.)

Workshop Plan!!!

Pick any of the stations you would like to work at and help us by bringing the needed supplies. We can also use fabric for binding. If you have bright solid fabric you can spare, this would be a good time to bring it. We are planning to have the following stations to complete the quilts:

PIN BASTING – Some tops will arrive at the workshop not yet quilted. These will all be rather small quilts, so we will need some people to pin baste. SUPPLIES REQUIRED: Pins for basting.

QUILTING – For those comfortable with quilting small quilts on your home machine, please come ready with whatever you need to help us with this part of the process. SUPPLIES REQUIRED: Sewing machines, walking foot, gloves and thread.

MAKING BINDING – This part of the process will involve cutting, sewing and ironing. SUPPLIES REQUIRED: Cutting board, rotary cutters, iron and ironing board or other ironing surface, sewing machine and thread.

SEWING BINDING TO QUILTS – We will bind the quilts we complete in the workshop by machine. Hand sewing binding to the back of quilts is very time consuming and will limit the number of quilts we'll be able to complete during our workshop. SUPPLIES REQUIRED: Sewing Machine, thread.

IRONING – We are mentioning this as a separate part of the process because we really need enough people and irons to have the most productive workshop possible. Although last year's workshop was a success, we could have been more productive if we had more up and running ironing stations. SUPPLIES REQUIRED: Irons and ironing boards or other ironing surfaces.

ATTACHING WQ LABELS – This will require hand sewing. SUPPLIES REQUIRED: Hand sewing needles and thread.

We welcome additional kid friendly fabrics and batting for the workshop. Depending on supplies on hand at the start of the workshop, we will start as many quilts as possible at cutting and piecing stations.

See you on November 8 for a fantastic day of fellowship and giving!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I don't know about you, but as soon as September is over you can feel it in the air... it's time to start thinking about holiday gifts. Personally, I love and enjoy making quilts, crafty items or baked goods to give as gifts.

In my small immediate family of five (husband, younger son, older married son and daughter-in-law), there isn't much lavish gift giving. They all prefer gift cards. Bah, humbug!

Before I retired, I loved to think about what I was going to gift my co-workers and/or attorneys. For several years, it was baked goods but I got tired of that because I had to do a lot of last minute baking in order to keep it all fresh.

I've also gifted my attorneys (and their wives, on occasion) quilts and/or knitted or crocheted afghans or shawls. I enjoyed the process of deciding on patterns and colors. I also loved to see their looks of appreciation and thanks for the length of time spent on their gifts.

Several years ago I learned how to make quilted Christmas ball ornaments. I had a ball (no pun intended!) making those and they were a bit hit. I ended up gifting each person at least two, and one attorney asked for an additional one which I was delighted to give (he had three kids who were fighting over the two). Those quilted balls made me especially proud of my handiwork.

Last year, I gifted my attorneys temari balls. I spent a year traveling to Ventura County to take classes from a leading temari ball expert. If you don't know what temari balls are, Google "temari balls," then click "images." I find them fascinating and gorgeous but they do require patience to make. Obviously, simple ones go faster than the intricate ones. Like any good quilter, I went nuts and created quite a stash of threads for my future temari balls (psss – haven't touched them at all this year). By the way, if there is any interest in learning the process, let me know and we can invite my instructor down for a demonstration and/or workshop.

Currently, I'm making ornaments to support a U.S. troop organization. My deadline is November 7 -- so forgive me but I need to get back to my crafting.....

SAVE THE DATE:

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 6

WQ MEMBER HOLIDAY TEA

Our annual members-only WQ Holiday Tea will be on Saturday, December 6, from 2-4pm at the home of member Roberta Walley. More details to come later in an email to members. Be sure to hold the date on your calendar for an afternoon of holiday cheer and fellowship with WQ members. The donation at the door will be $10.00 and will benefit a local charity. By the way, it's not too late to suggest a local charity to the board. Please send your suggestions to Pres@WestsideQuiltersLosAngeles.org.

MEMBERSHIP

We welcome a new member — Susan Lardy from Encino. Our membership stands at 87 as of October 28th. We want this number to grow, so make sure to hand out the referral cards you were sent in your renewal letter to all your quilting friends. Each card enables one of your friends to come once to a WQ meeting at no charge. Hopefully they will join!

In mid November, all who expressed interest on their Membership Form will receive further communication from me about forming and/or joining Mini Groups. I'll include contact info so you can all communicate with each other. I would also appreciate an email from any members of existing mini groups who might want to add to their group. If you did not indicate interest on your form, it's not too late - just let me know. Email me at Membership@WestsideQuiltersLosAngeles.org.

PHILANTHROPY

3rd Annual Giving for Thanksgiving Workshop

Our Annual Workshop is upon us — this Saturday, November 8 from 9:30am to 3:30pm!! The more members we have there, the more successful we're bound to be. All the details can be found on the first page of this newsletter. We hope to see you there.

Thank you

Thank you to the following people for letting us know the charity projects you have done and by signing the Charity Log at last month's WQ General Meeting: Lita Greenberg, Sandy Abramowitz, Prima Casetta, Pat Karasick, and Barbara Weigold.

We truly appreciate everyone's charity efforts! Happy stitching....

LEADERSHIP

Just returned from a wonderful vacation, inspiration was everywhere.

I used my camera and iPhone to snap photos. It is amazing how a walk next to the canals in Georgetown can inspire a quilt. The shapes I discovered in the photo jumped out..... suddenly it was a quilt! It could be realistic or abstract, but there it was for me to interpret.

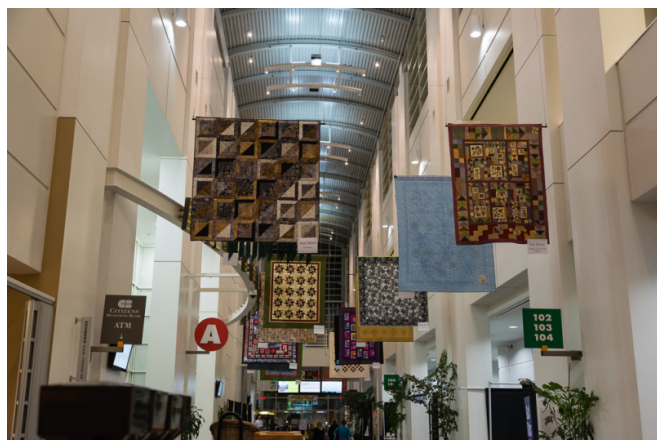

Our museum visits also excited my imagination. Now many of the museums allow photos without flash.

LOOK.....SEE.....SEW!

Road to California Atrium Quilts

Thanks to all of you who have entered your quilts for the Road to California Atrium Exhibit, which will feature only quilts by Westside Quilter Members. It is going to be a very colorful and varied group of quilts that will do us proud! Most of you have sent your forms and photos, but there are still a few "promised" quilts out there still. Please send your information as soon as you can. If you haven't yet and still want to enter your quilt, please do so now. The entry form can be found on page 9 of this newsletter, as well as a link to the Entry Form and instructions are on the home page at www.WestsideQuiltersLosAngeles.org.

The hard deadline to have all the forms and photos is November 10 since all the information for signage, etc. must get to Sharon at Road to California by November 15th. Soon after that, you'll receive an email detailing which of your quilts will be going and further information. We don't need the quilts until early January.

NEWSLETTER

We're always looking for more member participation for our WQ Newsletter. The newsletter is for our members, and should include our members. Please send us news updates about yourself. Also, want to review a quilting book? Want to write a travelogue about a recent quilting trip? Here's your chance to be a published writer! We also welcome any comments and ideas you may have regarding any WQ events or programs. Perhaps you can share a quilt tutorial. Please write to Newsletter@WestsideQuiltersLosAngeles.org.

PROGRAMS & WORKSHOPS

What an enjoyable time it was at our recent general meeting to see a fashion show of the many beautiful jackets created by Lisa Coulombe. I think it's safe to say that a number of us left the meeting with a new appreciation of and greater interest in wearable art. Lisa's talent was clearly on display and her creativity is really astounding.

Now, as we moving quickly into the holiday season, this year's workshops have come to an end. It is fun to look back on all that we have learned in the last year, and exciting to have the opportunity to revisit our past workshops as members of the guild finish their projects and bring them to meetings to share. Keep up the great work! We love to see what you have created!

Our next workshop will be on January 10, 2015, when we will get together and have a day dedicated to working on our UFOs! I, for one, have a project that has been nagging at me and I plan to bring it and hopefully make some good progress that day...maybe even finish it. We will have a teacher on hand to help you with any struggles you might have and to help you along the way. I hope you will join us in starting off the year with a quilting bang!

Also, please take a little time to visit the guild's website and see the many great workshops we have planned for 2015. You can still send us an email with the list of workshops you might be interested in and we will add you to the list. Those already on the list get first crack at confirming their spot in the class when registration officially opens. Please e-mail your list to Programs@WestsideQuiltersLosAngeles.org to sign-up. The lists are getting full so don't delay!

Happy Quilting!

WESTSIDE QUILTERS QUARTERLY GENERAL MEETING – OCTOBER 18, 2014

The general meeting of Westside Quilters (WQ) was held on October 24, 2014 at St. John's Presbyterian Church.

Introductory Remarks: President Perla Rothenberg brought the meeting to order at 10:00 am welcoming everyone. Laurie Brainerd was introduced as a new member.

Minutes: A motion to pass the minutes of the August 14, 2014 meeting was made by Jennie Kraft and seconded by Luann Jaffe.

Guild Business:

Philanthropy: Tanya Heldman & Debbie Nussbaum talked about the November 8th philanthropy workshop. The workshop will be held at Westwood Presbyterian Church on Wilshire Blvd. It will focus on quilts for children's charities. Sign up sheets were available for specific tasks. It was requested that members bring equipment for the tasks, irons, rotary cutters etc.

Treasurer: The current bank balance is $6,762.02.

Membership: There are currently 86 members.

Workshops: Stephanie Horsley talked about some of the workshops coming up in 2015. "Interest" sign up sheets were available.

Show and Tell: Debbie Nussbaum, Karynn Dittmar, Jennie Kraft, Sally Silvers and Cathy Seidman showed quilts inspired by the Ann Turley "Making Faces" workshop. Karynn also showed her quilt inspired by the Jane Sassaman workshop. Lita Greenberg showed her "Sunflower" baby philanthropy quilt. Prima Casseta showed two philanthropy quilts, one for Veterans' home and a group raffle quilt "Banners." Linda Lardy showed Mardi Gras and Holiday Lights. Pat Karasick, Holiday Lights String Quilt. Luanne Jaffe, a Sylvia Davis workshop Ribbons quilt. Virginia Marshall, "Flutterby." Kathryn Pellman showed a collection of snapshot and postcard sized 'fashionista' pieces. Laurie Brainerd showed "To the Brim."

Featured Speaker:

Our featured speaker Lisa Coulombe was introduced. Lisa is a quilter who, once she ran out of beds and walls for her quilts, turned to wearable art. She has over 20 years of experience and calls herself a "technique junkie." She has now nearly filled her closets with approximately 110 jackets and coats. Lisa led us through her quilting history, including the inspirations found while living in Thailand and Bahrain. She showed us some of her techniques using flannel as a foundation, piecing, quilting and then cutting the patterns. She also talked about and showed her use of flanges, beading and stenciling the inside lining. A great fashion show followed with many of Lisa's beautiful pieces modeled by some of our members.

Further Guild Business:

The member Holiday Tea will be held on Saturday December 6 at the home of Roberta Walley.

The next General Meeting will be held on February 7, 2015.

Perla thanked Lisa and the meeting was adjourned at 11:45.

Road to California Atrium Exhibit January 2014 Entry Form

Westside Quilters has been selected to show quilts in the annual Quilt Guild Exhibit quilts in the atrium of the Ontario Convention Center during Road to California January 22-25, 2015. We need 35 quilts all of which are at least 72" long. Width can vary and is not critical. The quilts are hung from the upper level and provide a wonderful view as you enter the Convention Center.

All quilts must have a 4" hanging sleeve attached and each quilt needs to be labeled with the Quilter's name and Phone number. Please put the labels on the top right hand side (on the back of the quilt) near the sleeve. The Road to California organizers encourage you to name your quilts, it makes for a more interesting exhibit. All quilt tops must have been made by a WQ Member. There is no "Made after" date requirement. All quilt styles are welcome!

All the entry forms must be returned by November 1, but we don't need the actual quilts until January 10th. Get your entries in early – If we receive more entries than the 35 we need, there will be some very informal jury process to provide the best and most varied showcase of our talented WQ Members. Earlier entries may get priority. Please include a photo (at least 4" X 6") of each quilt along with your entry form. Photos can just be a snapshot – they are for our use only and will not be published. Each quilt requires its own separate form.

Please fill out the following completely. Some of the information will be used by Road to California for signs which will hang with your quilt. Questions? Contact Sally Wright below.
